Student Name: Jerrica Greene Date: Oct 7, 2020

IM1 Patient Physical Assessment Narrative

Gastrointestinal (bowel habits, appearance of abdomen, bowel sounds, tenderness to palpation) Skin of abdomen is free of scars, Distension, rashes, Protrusions. Incision present across Lower Left Quadrant. Sutures where dry, no Swelling, or drainage. Abdomen is flat and symmetric with no bulges. Soft gurgles and Stomach sounds, no tenderness Last BM 8:00 am Genitourinary-Reproductive (frequency, urgency, continence, color, clarity, odor, vaginal bleeding, discharge) Urine normal yellow in color, no odor, or blood. Testes where Swollen and painful. No incontinence noted, Patient Suffers from constipation, first BM this morning was Soft and brown in nature.

700 ML Urine output (last 24 hrs) 9:00am LMP (if applicable) NA

Musculoskeletal (alignment, posture, mobility, gait, movement in extremities, deformities) Gait is slightly unsteady due to necrotic foot. Patient moves smoothly with walker. Normal curves of cervical, thoracic, and lumbar spine. Semi full ROM to upper and lower extremities. Upper and lower extremities without lesions, nodules, deformities, or swelling. Minimal activity intolerance.

Skin (skin color, temp, texture, turgor, integrity) Skin pink, warm, dry and elastic. No lesions or excoriations noted. New abdominal incision on abdomen and on inner thigh near groin. New incision is about 5-6 inches long.

Wounds/Dressings Incision on Lower left Quadrant of abdomen and inner thigh near groin. No dressing present. Wound dry, intact, no drainage or swelling.

Other Necrotic left foot, diminishe pedal pulse. Black in color. Dressing - wrapped and elivated. toe nails and toes black in color.