

Enhanced Staffing (One to One) Test

1. Give one example of why a resident might need one to one staffing enhancement service:
Self-harm _____

2. What is the distance a staff must remain from the resident when assigned as the one to one staff? ___Arms Length _____

3. If treatment plan instructions differ from Beacon's policy for one to one, which instructions should be followed? __Treatment Plan _____

4. It is okay to leave the resident on a one to one to assist another staff with an incident that is occurring in the home? T or F FALSE
5. Prior to taking a break, the staff assigned to the one to one should complete what form of documentation? __Q15 minute chart notes _____

6. List two examples of ways to scan the environment for safety? __Visually and by checking in with other teammates _____

7. It is okay to leave the resident alone on a one on one in the bathroom as long as staff is standing outside of the door T or F? FALSE
8. Who should staff ask, for clarification when they don't understand a diagnosis or has a question about a resident's treatment plan? F
 - a. Another direct care worker
 - b. Home manager
 - c. Assistant Home Manager
 - d. Clinical Staff
 - e. All of the Above
 - f. b or c

g. a

9. When assigned to a one on one and a resident is sleeping, staff may use their cell phone T or F?

FALSE

10. At the beginning of each shift the assigned one to one staff should review notes from the previous shift to assure they know the current situation with the resident they have been assigned. T or F? TRUE

11. If a staff has never worked with a resident before, what document must they review to familiarize themselves with the residents background/presenting concerns? Person Centered Plan,

Psychosocial_____
