

Recipient Rights Quiz

demetria I davis

Date / Time	Student Score	Passing Score	Result
October 1, 2020 11:10 am	80	80	Passed

#	Question	Correct Answer	Student Answer	Result	Points Awarded
1	A recipient comes to an appointment and appears intoxicated. When she tries to leave the office in her car, her Case Manager physically pulls her back into the building. This is an example of:	Excessive use of force	Effectively managing a high risk situation	Incorrect	0
2	Which of these is an example of treating a recipient with dignity and respect (check all that apply)?	Knocking on a closed door before entering, Using positive language when speaking to a recipient	Knocking on a closed door before entering, Using positive language when speaking to a recipient	Correct	10
3	Information about a recipient can be released on a "need-to-know" basis, if (check all that apply):	There is an emergency situation, such as "duty to warn", The recipient signs a consent	There is an emergency situation, such as "duty to warn", The recipient signs a consent	Correct	10
4	Writing an Incident Report (IR) and giving it to my manager/supervisor completes my requirement for reporting a suspected rights violation to the Rights Office.	False	False	Correct	10
5	A preliminary treatment plan must be developed within 7 days of commencement of services.	True	True	Correct	10
6	Interventions with recipients that are restrictive or intrusive can only be used as a last resort and must be approved by the Behavior Treatment Committee.	True	True	Correct	10
7	Incident Reports must be written in response to which of the following events:	All of the above	All of the above	Correct	10
8	Which of the following could be considered neglect?	All of the above	All of the above	Correct	10
9	Which of the following is NOT an example of your role in protecting the rights of recipients:	Waiting a few days to report a suspected rights allegation, so	Waiting a few days to report a suspected rights allegation, so	Correct	10