

Chrystal Inman

MA- 215

Joyce Curtis

07/07/2020

Syllabus Quiz

1. When is late work accepted?

"Case by case basis, determined by the instructor".

2. What components are involved in determining the professional development grade

- Attendance/Dependability
- Time Management/Productivity
- Integrity/Character
- Detail oriented
- Initiative
- Conduct
- Appearance
- Empathy
- Clinical competence
- Confidentiality
- Organizational Skills
- Responsible
- Communication (verbal and nonverbal)
- Courtesy
- Teamwork
- Accountability

- Attitude
- Active Listening Skills
- Respect
- Follows Lab Guidelines

3. What is the conduct policy for Beal College

The conduct policy states that actions shall be guided by mutual respect, integrity, and reason.

4. What is expected for learning activities and assignments.

They are due on Saturdays by 11:59pm.

5. When are extra points offered

They are not offered.

6. How many competencies do you have to complete in order to pass this course.

There are 9 competency areas outlined in the syllabus, however ALL competencies in the manual must be completed to pass this course.

7. What can you expect if 1 (one) error is found in a review skill.

You fail the course.

8. In what week will we be covering Microbiology and performing smears, cultures and gram staining.

Week 4

9. In what week are we covering Neurology and mental health.

Week 7

10. What is the expectation for professionalism

Professional development is 10% of the course grade. It is expected that we present and conduct ourselves as professionals, the way we would in the workplace.