

Elizabeth Lovell

Professor Justine McClarren

EH 102- Speech

July 13, 2020

"The average day of a Phlebotomist"

1. Starting your day weather it may be day or night shift
2. Setting up your equipment, and supplies
3. What type of patient care is needed for sample
4. Viewing the daily "hours" board
5. Attention to detail with labeling
6. Drawing blood from the patient's
7. Specimen care and proper lab hand off
8. Working in the lab (this is not for hospital phlebotomist)
9. Enjoy what you do and love what you do.