

Assignment I: “Finding your Niche”: What is your research interest? (Due, August 14th on e360)

A. What topic would you like to tackle for your literature review major paper assignment?

Briefly explain in 2 to 3 sentences.

This topic should be something you are generally interested in exploring further in SW 434. For example; Depression, Anxiety, Physical/Mental Health, Relationship Issues, Gender Equality, etc.

B. What is the specific question you'd like to answer about the topic?

For example: I want to know if taking a supplement will help me get more sleep? I want to know if meditating each day will reduce my anxiety? I want to know if reducing my daily calories will help me lose weight?

C. What do you think you will learn once you start researching the topic?
