

1. I would describe it as a fish net to catch fishes in the ocean
2. That it actually came out nice, with the wind to chance the movement of her art piece was very nice.
3. They thought it was funny, as if she was joking with the audience.
4. No matter what happens to never give up on something you genuine love , work with patience and you will have a better blessing.