Self Introduction

Hi, my name is Christian Ward. I am from Andrews, South Carolina. The name of my favorite pet is "Coco." My hobbies are enjoying outdoor activities, watching movies, and spending time with family. Something exciting and fun about me is I'm in the United States Army, and I've repelled from an 80 ft. Tower. I never had the interest of wanting to teach, but with my profession, I will be responsible for teaching my fellow soldiers.
