Notes

- Autonomous Model of Literacy has the assumption that literacy in itself- autonomously will have effects on other cognitive and social practices.
- The Ideological Model of Literacy is the opposite.
- Offers a more culturally view of literacy practices as they vary from each other.
- New Literacies are defined as “new technologies.”
- Goes far as podcasting, blogging, text-messaging, photo sharing, and social networking.
- Social Literacy is a student’s successful performance and understanding of Communication skills, social skills, and organizational skills.
- One of the most important literacies that will be impactful on your career.
- The focus of Global Literacy is the understanding of how the world is organized.
- People that have Global Literacy skills will think critically about the world.
- A Research Strategy includes a plan on how to conduct a research study.
- The plan includes monitoring and executing the study.
