Summary:

Plagiarism is the practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own. You see a lot of plagiarism in areas such as art, business, and academy fields. You always have to be sure that when searching for information to always credit the source of which you found it. When Quoting make sure you write exactly how it was written. And included the person's name of who said it or where you got it from. Plagiarizing by not citing a source or misquoting can get you into trouble depending on the circumstances depends on how severely punished you'll get.
