

Leslie L. Jackson

Research topic

I would like to do my research proposal on the expression of polyubiquitin during flight muscle histolysis in house crickets. I became interested in this topic when I decided to do SURF in 2019. This topic is important because gaining knowledge of the role of UPS in flight muscle histolysis may provide insight to human disease (i.e Parkinson's disease). I also want to use this topic to help with my senior research class.