

7

Sample Scratch Outline

Topic: The ideology of Feminism

Specific Purpose: To inform the class about the ideology of Feminism

Thesis: Feminism is a complex ideology that has had varying waves containing different values and objectives in the past two centuries; however, the prominent thought shared amongst feminists is that feminism is an organized activity on behalf of women's rights and interests that believes in the political, economic, and social equality of the sexes.

Points:

1. The origin and cause of Feminism
2. The argument and features of Feminism
3. The relevance of Feminism in today's world.