

1. The amateur athletic union is a privately-owned league for minor student athletes in the USA. Helping athletes find exposure throughout their young career. Their revenue as of 2018 was 20 million dollars and their assets were 14 million.

<https://www.causeiq.com/organizations/amateur-athletic-union-parent-organization,356057862/>

2. The Orlando Magic is a pro basketball team in the NBA. Owned by the Devos family. Basically, making the organization owned by the public. They bring in money from the multimillion-dollar hospital and the facilities that they opened for the team and the organization.

<https://www.nba.com/magic/orlando-magic-executives>

3. Dallas Mavericks is a national basketball team in the NBA in the western conference. Dallas estimated revenue franchise is about 287 million us dollars. They won one NBA finals back in 2011 vs. the Miami Heat in a crunch time game 7.