

After looking over the Minors I minor I chose is Child Development. I chose Child development, because I want to do counseling psychology and specialize in children and adolescents.