1. What quality do you think is not important for becoming a police officer? I think all qualities are important when a person is trying to become a police officer they have to have good qualities and they all matter. I don't think there is a quality that is not important. I do believe there is a reason that they make the people who want to be police officers go through certain steps in the process because later they will find out that they will use every technique that they were taught. In order to be a police officer there are certain requirements that people have to have. In my opinion the good qualities that police officers need to have is good communication skills, compassion and empathy, integrity, and eagerness to learn, and last but not least Mental agility.
2. The quality that I think is most important when trying to become a police officer is to staying clean. When people apply to become a police officer I believe that one of the main things that the employer will be looking for is clean record. They want people who already exhibit behaviors that suggest a strong moral and ethical character. They want people who love to help others that are in need and show compassion for all people. If anyone chooses to be a police officer I think first they need to check to see what is on their record. They should do this because if becoming a police is their dream they have to look at the reality. The reality is that if there are any criminal acts on their background this will be something that can hold them back from becoming a police officer.
