

5 Great Places to Eat in Las Vegas Nevada COVID-19 Edition

The sun is shining as bright as ever, your regretting the beautiful long sleeve floral dress you decided to put on for church. A beat of sweat glimmers across your forehead as you raise your hand waving to your family trying to hurry into the air-conditioned car. The family make their last remarks to 1000 other church members before finally entering the car. Everyone's stomach is grumbling and set to go get the traditional brunch. Pulling up to the restaurant your stomach is jumping with anticipation. Walking up to the door you read, inside dining area now closed due to pandemic. During COVID-19 many of people's favorite restaurants have unfortunately closed down their dining areas, but many restaurants are in fact still open dining rooms and all. This article will give you list of restaurants in Las Vegas, Nevada that are still open so you can enjoy your family time, dates, and events with knowing you and your loved ones will be safe under Covid restaurant guidelines.

1. Hot n' Juicy

by Unknown Author is licensed under

If you're interested in seafood Hot n' Juicy is the perfect place to be. With a menu that expands from shrimp to huge jumbo crabs and much more there's nothing more you could ask for.

2. Pizza Rock

by Unknown Author is licensed under

If you love Italian got to Pizza Rock. They have amazing pizza that varies from supreme to BBQ chicken. Also, they definitely know how to rock with classic rock blasting from the speakers.

3. Cabo Wabo Cantina

by Unknown Author is licensed under

Tacos, quesadilla, chicken fajitas, burritos, chips and salsa the menu is endless. With great scenery beautiful music and wonderful food, you can't go wrong with Cabo

Wabo Cantina.

4. Gritz Café

by Unknown Author is licensed under

Soul food should definitely be on your in Vegas especially when it comes to Gritz Café. Huge buttermilk biscuits accompanied with chicken and waffles, and don't forget the dreamy beautiful grits. Gritz café is a homey down to earth vibe with food to feed your soul.