Date:10/13/2020

Metaphor

"Comparison of two unlike things not using like, as or than"

"We are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, ties in a single garment of destiny.

Dr.King is referring to all the South, even though Birmingham is having bombs and having a lot of racism and mistreatment. That don't mean that all other places with blacks doesn't feel the same, and that if one goes through this pain and suffering then all the blacks go through the pain and suffering as well. He is saying that all blacks are a network that is effected by the racism and the mistreatment the whites put upon the blacks.

Mimesis

"Imitating another's writing style/use of devices"

" ... And Thomas Jefferson: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal ..." So the question is not whether we will be extremists, but what kind of extremists we will be.

He is that all men are created equal but why are the blacks are being treated differently. Then he use Thomas Jefferson quote from the Declaration of Independence, to explain if all men are equal why are being done wrongly, so he is asking that the blacks see this as a problem and that their view point is that they are not being treated as equals but as if they are lower. So Dr.King Kind of accepted the idea of a extremist to tell the Clergymen that blacks will no longer listen and that their point of view of segregation and wrong doing of the south shall be meet with marches and protesting.
