

After completing the questionnaire and reviewing my results, I was not surprised at my high scores. I have always pride myself with how my work ethics and tenacity drives me to do better each and every day.