

The Torah

Outline

- I. Introduction :What Is The Torah
- II. Body1:Covenant Code & Deuteronomic Code
- III. Body2 :Holiness Code & Priestly Code
- IV. Body3:Israel Culture Need for The Book Of Laws
- V. Conclusion : Significance Torah Have Within the 21st Century

In this research paper, this writer will be examining what The Torah is and core the reflections of The Old Testament and how significance to the 21st century . Explaining what the Torah is and different laws and codes established with the Law . The Torah was written by Moses as it was given to him by Godly inspiration on Mt. Sinai, in 1312 BCE. Modern time nonspiritual scholars date it to around 539 to 334 BCE. It is God's covenant and commands are necessary for Jews. The Torah influenced Judaism by giving the 10 Commandments as the Jews' main rules. However, there are 613 commandments in the Torah.Using one of the sections of the Hebrew Bible/Old Testament (Torah -Law Format paper in Turabian 8th edition, footnote format, with properly formatted bibliography.

Coogan, Michael D, The Old Testament: A Historical and Literary Introduction to the Hebrew Scriptures, (New York, Oxford University Press, 2014)