The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein. For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his Holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah. ( Psalms 24:1-6 ).

Number 9 of the ten principles that summarize the exchanged life make the most sense to me, by that the spiritual life is an inside-out rather than an outside-in process, ( Ephesians 3:16-19 ).

The Father strengthens us “with power through His Spirit in the inner man” ( Ephesians 3:16 ). In this way, sanctification is a divine-human dynamic in which our outworking (“work out your salvation with fear and trembling” [Philippians 2:12]) is an expression of God’s inworking (“ for it is God who is at work in you, both to will and to work for His good pleasure” [ Philippians 2:13]). ( according to Kenneth Boas ).

As I give my observation of this particular part of the text is God is in everyone life and is never to be excluded of depending on Him for all of our needs, it has been proven over and over in the Bible of people that became independent of the Lord and fail.
