

Systematic Theology 11 Th213
Quiz on Mr. Martin's UTube Presentation

The most resonant things I learned from the presentation?
Professor, I did not get what you meant about "the most resonant things from this audio presentation." So, I went to the dictionary and google to understand the meaning of "resonant." I finally got it through Google: "a resonant speech moves you by bringing to mind all that is good in the world, family, friends, and laughter.

1. Okay. The most resonant thing that comes to my mind from the audio is that Mr. Martin did as I believe men or women should do before they espouse about God, Jesus, or the Christ, is to pray. That was first and foremost to me. I guess you could that resonated well with me. After he did that, he had my attention. During his prayer, I believe he emptied himself so that the Christ Spirit could come in. We all should do that.
2. The most dissonant (harsh, disagreeable, inharmonious in sound). It was his talk about Sun Myung Moon. I know it is true about what Rev Moon thought about himself and his movement. However, it is still disturbing to me, Personally, many years ago, when my late husband and I lived in San Diego, Ca., We were ministers and a member among other Ministers, in the "New Thought" religious community. A flyer went out to each member of the ministers to attend a 3-day conference in Korea, at no expense to either of us, airfare, hotel, food included. My husband and I thought about it and we decided not to go. We believed then as I believe now, "everything free isn't free." Many years later, I saw on television about his mas wedding ceremony. I didn't need a new husband. God had hand picked the best one for me.
3. My 2 paragraphs that impact my theological understanding of the Person of God.

4. A. Mr. Martin explained about God's servant, God's Ambassador, Paul. He brought out the point clearly about when Paul was in Athens (Acts 17:16-17) his spirit stirred him. In other words, Paul was provoked by the idolaters who had taken over the city. Paul was so enthralled by the Christ until he could not stand to hear or see anything but the truth in Christ.
5. B. Isn't that what we, as Christians are supposed to do? Aren't we supposed to stand up for the truth as we know it? Shouldn't we speak up for the Christ in us? Let us always remember "God is Love." Because God is Love and we are His children, we are Love.
6. C. I know you said two paragraphs, however, hopefully this will give me extra credit, smile. Speaking Ontologically, God is an absolutely perfect being. I agree with Immanuel Kant and Anselm A and Anselm B. God is not only a perfect Being, God is a necessary Being. God lacks nothing, He is absolute Perfection. God does exist therefore, He is necessary. "God cannot cease to exist, and He cannot exist contingently." God's nature is not one to be argued or debated. It is and that's all there is to it.

8. Five Salient things I did not know?
9. 1. Kids being brainwashed at an early age, many in colleges around the world.
- 10.
11. 2. Atheist - They bring to this world and they build nothing. Yet they take everything. Mr. Martin used the example; "when you educate a their, you increase his/her capacity to steal," It makes sense to me.
- 12.
13. 3. Sun Mjung Moon referring to himself as the Christ.
- 14.
15. 4. No retreads only creation. When I think of retreads, I think of tires on a car. They are okay for a little while. God loves and creates newness. "Morning by morning new mercies I see."

16. 5. Jesus Christ cannot conquer death. Why, because He lives in me and He lives in you.

17.

18. Summary: Jesus Christ is alive and His life in me and you is eternal. Our job is to know the power of Jesus Christ. He is the Savior born in each one of us.
