URBAN EVANGELISM OL WORKSHEET - WEEK 10

Name: ___Dirk Wheeler___11595_____

1. What are three ways we can make our ministries incarnational?

Ministries are incarnational when the missionaries becomes a part of the people to be reached by personally being where they are, sharing in their living experiences and being committed to stay in an intentional evangelical and loving relationship.

2. What three New Testament passages indicate God's directive in reaching people from other cultures?

The three New Testament passages indicating God's directive in reaching people from other cultures are, Acts 1:8, John 4: 39-41 and Matthew 28:19.

3. Why is the personal approach the most effective approach to ministry, especially since we live in a technological culture>

Especially in the virtual realities, digitized voice interfaces, and automated self service society; the impersonal disconnectedness serves the personal approach ministry. Whereas humans are innately created to be interpersonal, relational and have a need to be so; the lack of this trait afforded by technology advances in turn a hunger for the intimacy the personal approach ministry provides.

Thereby the personal approach ministry becomes a welcomed natural reality wherein the love of God, love for God and fellowman and above
