Leadership

After reading the article regarding Steven Denning, I've concluded that Leadership is about Serving, Winston church hill said "We Make a living by what we get we make a life by what we give" Real Leadership is defining your path and sticking to the process, even if that means by going against the grain.

Real Leadership is not focusing on the money or the success, it about getting things done despite the system. Steven Denning highlight's a point by William Deresiewicz that leadership is to be "more" than Successful.

Being a leader is to go into uncharted waters and thrive, some will not understand the direction but Forward thinking leadership, develops experts and workplaces leadership, Great Leadership Transform the system.

Good leaders are made, not born. If you have the desire and willpower, you can become an effective leader. Good leaders develop through a never ending process of self-study, education, training, and experience
