

Dear Sir,

My name is Rudolph V. Oliver. I am applying for the Captain position at Roybal CDC Atlanta Ga. I believe my experience in law enforcement has giving me the skills as a correction officer and a Deputy Warden of numerous facilities. I have developed multiple important skills and qualities and gained valuable experience in performing various detail in the security field.

Beside that I have completed professional background check. I am a Junior working on my bachelor's degree in religious studies. My degree in religious studies can give guidance and discipline to the staff at the CDC and beneficial to the captain position.

I am passionate about security and believe that I could be a good contribution to your company.

Sincerely,

Rudolph V. Oliver
