REFLECTION PAPER: WHAT INFLUENCED YOU TO CHOOSE BHU?

As a Christian I have desired to advance my studies with an institution that will be able to nurture me holistically, and Beulah Heights University proved to be committed in developing relevant Christian leaders for ministry and market places. Beulah Heights University is also committed in providing theological and practical training from a Christian world view. Its programs are tailored in exposing students to humanities, sciences, effective communication skills, and other professional studies. The online service program is favorable and accommodative to many students. Beulah Heights is a training institution for students interested in learning ethical leadership for ministry and market place.

Upon going through the Beulah heights university core values have realized they have what I needed for my spiritual growth and career development. Beulah heights strongly believes in Biblical inherent which seeks to bring every aspect of personal and corporate life under the functional authority of inerrant word of god. The school is committed to fulfill the great commission through participating in global missions. Beulah Heights is committed in raising leaders who are dedicated in offering servant hood to the community. The institution is Commitment to raise leaders who portrays high level of integrity full of trust and obedience to the word of God. Beulah heights practices the value of diversity which encourages accommodating one another.

The university has the teaching staff that is resourceful and willing to walk with the student for them to achieve their dreams. It's amazing how lecturers are connecting with students. Combination of students from across the world has influenced me to join Beulah heights as they will be able to challenge my thinking. Christians from across denomination gives me a lot of morale to understand different doctrines and traditions of other churches. I was hoping to meet friends who are role models and ready to walk with me for spiritual growth and career development.

Desire for knowledge influenced me to the institution of my choice. Beulah heights have all what one would need to become a competent christian leader in a contemporary world. The different courses offered by the institution are relevant to address the different challenges the world is facing today. I found the courses of my choice at Beulah heights. The cost of education is also friendly.

I found the learning environment at Beulah heights conducive for my studies. This is because one can plan his scheduled to align with the college expectation. The mode of teaching is also appealing and interesting especially to those of us who have been out of college for some time. The teaching materials are up to date with the current happenings in the world. The university has a wealth of research materials that are useful in broadening our thinking as leaders in different arenas.

We are living at times when everyone is looking upon leaders for solution of their problems, and thus as leaders we must be equipped for the task. I was looking forward to pursue my career and dream of becoming a competent minister of the gospel. I realized Beulah University has a good ways of nurturing talent and make them useful in the society. Beulah heights have a capacity of helping students discover their personalities, which helps them in choosing a career. This personalities determines someone passion in life.

I also meet with friends who encouraged me to continue with studies. To have - success in life and ministry one has to study and get the right knowledge, to help in addressing the upcoming issues. The desire to succeed in life while pursuing my dream challenged my thinking to join Beulah heights. In Beulah someone has enough time to study and interact with other students. Courses are given enough time for students to interact well with the manuals.
