LEAD 701 Foundations in Leadership [Running Average: 94% (A)]

Week 1 Discussion	23/25.00
Private Discussion Feedback:	92%
Where is the reference for the below statement??? Remember, scholarly writing is not based on your opinion.... There are many reasons why leaders and managers are identified as the same role in business. However, if one looks closely enough at the functions and responsibilities of both, one can determine that they are entirely different and serve exceptional purposes. In actuality, an organization that has great leaders and even better managers can be very successful. However, if that company is lacking either effective leadership or management, the deficiency can cause the company to experience failures in the overall achievement of the organization's goals and vision.

Week 2 Discussion	24/25.00
Private Discussion Feedback:	96%
You should cite the case study in the beginning of your work. You discuss a case study without a citation to it.
