Beebe Healthcare
Margaret H. Rollins School of Nursing Nursing 101 - Foundations of Nursing

Nursing Process – Day 1 Class Preparation

1. Identify the step of the nursing process that is described in each item below.

   a. The nurse writes an expected outcome for the nursing diagnosis.

      Planning

   b. The nurse describes the patient's verbal and nonverbal complaints.

      Assessment

   c. The nurse changes the nursing care plan after reviewing the patient's progress in achieving the expected outcomes.

      evaluation

   d. The nurse describes the patient's problem according to NANDA (North American Nursing Diagnosis Association) terminology.

      Nurse diagnosis

   e. The nurse performs the planned nursing interventions.

      implementation

2. Identify the subjective data (S) and objective (O) data.

VS- 99.9-84-14 150/84	_O__
"My head really aches."	_ S__
Alert & oriented to time, place, & person	_ O__
Hemoglobin 12 & Hematocrit 34	_ O__
"I seem to feel weak all the time."	_ S__

Equal strength noted in all extremities   _ O___