

Teratogens, FAS, NAS
Ticket to Enter
Nursing 201: Nursing Care of Special Populations

1. What are safety precautions that pregnant nurses in the acute care setting must be aware of?

Wearing monitor for radiation exposure
Avoiding chemotherapeutic medication
Proper body mechanics
PPE for infection prevention Caution for combative patients
Breaks from standing for long periods of time
Asking for help

2. Identify the facial features that this child with FAS possesses.

thin upper lip

small eyes

flat midface/indistinct philtrum