

Independent Assignment- Ticket to Enter

Name that problem, disorder, condition or nursing diagnosis.....

1. I make the client have an abrupt onset of excruciating pain to various parts of the face. My attacks are brief, but severe. Even something as simple as brushing their teeth can cause me to flare up! _____
2. I am a slow growing mass that can cause compression and irritation of the nerve roots. I can cause sensory and motor problem depending on where I started growing. The first symptom I can cause that could be easily mistaken for injury could be back pain.

3. If you have a viral or bacterial infection of the upper respiratory tract or even the GI system, you could fall ill to me. The classic symptom I cause is ascending weakness of the limbs.

4. I am a temporary, transient warning sign of progressive disease but am still considered a medical emergency because micro emboli temporarily blocked blood flow causing neurologic dysfunction!! _____
5. A stroke damaging the _____ side of the brain can cause a paralyzed right side, impaired speech and language and slow performance causing the patient to be very cautious.
6. A stroke on the _____ side of the brain can cause a paralyzed left side, spatial-perceptual problems, rapid performance, and impaired judgment and impulsiveness.
7. List two Patient Problems/Nursing Diagnoses for a patient who has suffered from a CVA:

