

Ticket to Enter: Nervous System

A&P Review

Neuro Assessment & Diagnostics

Nursing 102

1. Which problem can the nurse expect for a patient who has a positive Romberg test result?
A. Pain B. Falls C. Aphasia D. Confusion
2. Stereognosis is the ability to perceive the form and nature of objects. It is tested by having the patient close their eyes and identify common objects in their hands such as a coin or a key.
3. Which is the functional unit of the nervous system?
A. Astrocytes B. Dendrites C. The cell body D. The neuron
4. Which finding would indicate an abnormal CSF fluid analysis?
A. It contains RBC's B. It contains small amounts of proteins and sugars
C. It is clear and colorless D. It is odorless

Indicate the correct division (Parasympathetic or Sympathetic) of the autonomic nervous system responsible for the following responses:

5. Increased sweating → Sympathetic
6. Dilated pupils → Sympathetic
7. Dilation of bronchioles → Sympathetic
8. Decreased heart rate → Parasympathetic
9. Increased digestion → Parasympathetic
10. Decreased respiration → Parasympathetic

Name the correct cranial nerve:

11. This nerve innervates muscles of facial expression → VII Facial
12. Shrugging the shoulders and turning head to side against resistance tests CN → XI Accessory
13. Assessment of visual fields and visual acuity tests CN → III Oculomotor
14. Light touch and pinprick in ophthalmic, maxillary, and mandibular areas tests CN → V Trigeminal
15. Recognizing common odors with smell tests CN → I Olfactory