

Ticket to Enter: Nervous System

A&P Review

Neuro Assessment & Diagnostics

Nursing 102

1. Which problem can the nurse expect for a patient who has a positive Romberg test result?
A. Pain                      B. Falls                      C. Aphasia                      D. Confusion
2. Perception is the ability to perceive the form and nature of objects. It is tested by having the patient close their eyes and identify common objects in their hands such as a coin or a key.
3. Which is the functional unit of the nervous system?
A. Astrocytes              B. Dendrites              C. The cell body              D. The neuron
4. Which finding would indicate an abnormal CSF fluid analysis?
A. It contains RBC's                      B. It contains small amounts of proteins and sugars
C. It is clear and colorless              D. It is odorless
5. What diagnostic study is an X-ray of the spinal cord and vertebral column using an injection of contrast into the subarachnoid space? a myelogram
6. This diagnostic study evaluates blood flow velocities of intracranial blood vessels and requires a probe to be placed on the skin of the skull. Transcranial doppler ultrasound

Name the correct cranial nerve:

7. This nerve innervates muscles of facial expression: CN VII
8. Shrugging the shoulders and turning head to side against resistance tests: CN XI
9. Assessment of visual fields and visual acuity tests: CN II
10. Light touch and pinprick in ophthalmic, maxillary and mandibular areas tests: CN V
11. Recognizing common odors with smell tests: CN I