

Independent Assignment

Abnormal/Interrupted Fetal Development

1. What are the clinical manifestations for an ectopic pregnancy?

Nausea, Vomiting, Breast Tenderness, Missed Period, Abdominal pain- dull lower quadrant pain, Spotting

2. What is a hydatidiform mole (molar pregnancy)

Complete- fetus never forms, Partial- abnormal fetus

3. What are the manifestation of a molar pregnancy and are there are any complications you should know for follow up care?

Vaginal bleeding, Nausea & Vomiting, Enlarged uterus, No FHT's usually, Preeclampsia, hCG, Transvaginal Ultrasound

Complications you should know for follow up care include choriocarcinoma, require hCG testing for 6-12 months, no further pregnancy until cleared by MD