

Independent Assignment

Abnormal/Interrupted Fetal Development

1. What are the clinical manifestations for an ectopic pregnancy?
 - N/V
 - Breast tenderness
 - Missed period
 - Abdominal pain -dull lower quadrant pain
 - Spotting
2. What is a hydatidiform mole (molar pregnancy)
 - nonviable pregnancy
 - abnormal or partial formed fetus
 - rapidly growing cells
 - forms placenta
3. What are the manifestation of a molar pregnancy and are there are any complications you should know for follow up care?
 - Complete or partial
 - choriocarcinoma- rare but good prognosis, will need methotrexate, almost 100% cure rate if there is no metastasis, may need hysterectomy if invasive, treat until hCG is negative, will need contraception while being treated.