

Independent Assignment

Abnormal/Interrupted Fetal Development

1. What are the clinical manifestations for an ectopic pregnancy?

N/V, breast tenderness, missed period, abd pain (dull lower quadrant pain), spotting

Rupture: pain (acute, severe), unstable VS, shoulder pain, s/s shock, internal bleeding, faintness/dizziness, Cullen's sign

2. What is a hydatidiform mole (molar pregnancy)

Trophoblastic cells growing rapidly, placental, transparent vesicles, nonviable pregnancy, can be complete (fetus never forms) or partial (abnormal fetus)

3. What are the manifestation of a molar pregnancy and are there are any complications you should know for follow up care?

Vaginal bleeding, N/V, enlarged uterus, no FHT, preeclampsia

Cx: choriocarcinoma (cancer)