

Independent Assignment

Abnormal/Interrupted Fetal Development

1. What are the clinical manifestations for an ectopic pregnancy?
- light vaginal bleeding, pelvic pain,

2. What is a hydatidiform mole (molar pregnancy)
 - a. Complete (fetus never forms)
 - b. Partial (abn fetus)
 - c. Trophoblastic cells grow rapidly

3. What are the manifestation of a molar pregnancy and are there are any complications you should know for follow up care?
 - a. Vaginal bleeding, n/v, enlarged uterus
 - b. Choriocarcinoma