

Questions from 3 videos and ABG power point

1. What happens if there is injury causing fluid in the alveoli and an obstruction, is this a common or uncommon occurrence to have both type 1 and type 2?
2. Is mechanical ventilation causing the patients oxygen to be within normal limits or is there another value to check if the patient is getting the right amount of oxygen?
3. How many times can we hit the Fi 100% while waiting for RT?

4. How easily accessible are the machines to take abg's?