Explain the rationale and/or benefits of this activity with respect to the community:

During my time with the Marine Corps League, I was able to be apart of packing meals for members of the Marine Corps League. Those meals went to the members that are veterans and or active duty to ensure they had meals for the upcoming weekend. Essentially this is the same as meals on Wheels but supporting the Marines. Having meals prepped and delivered ensures no meal is missed and provides a resource, especially for veterans that may not be able to go to the grocery store has the essentials they need.
