

Nursing Professional Self-Pledge

I, Olivia Creamer, recognize that as a nurse, I have a professional commitment to myself. I will honor this commitment by: (give a minimum of two actions you will take to fulfill a professional commitment to yourself such as actions you might take to demonstrate a commitment to life-long learning, self-care or developing resilience)

- Actively identifying areas of improvement + pursuing continuing education to maintain professional knowledge + skills
- Remaining up to date \bar{c} EBP's + implementing those practices into my patient care

I recognize that I also have a professional commitment to the profession of nursing. I will honor this commitment by: (give a minimum of two actions you will take to fulfill a professional commitment to nursing such as actions you might take to advance the science of nursing, care for vulnerable populations or advocacy)

- Speak openly @ team meetings about practices that enhance the quality of care given to patients OR negatively impact their care / disrupt care efficiency
- Actively communicate + collaborate \bar{c} pt.'s HCP/ACP/MD to ensure their needs are voiced + that they are receiving the highest quality of care

I accept that I am responsible for presenting a positive and professional image of nursing. Ways that I will honor this commitment will include: (give a minimum of two actions you will take to present a positive and professional image of nursing such as conduct, language, or appearance)

- Utilize the nursing process in patient care
- Utilize SBAR when communicating \bar{c} other healthcare professionals
- Utilize resources provided by BEEBE + ANA to ensure I am providing the safest, most effective, highest quality care to my pt.'s

The profession of nursing is one that requires adherence to an established code of ethics. I will uphold these ideals to ensure the care I provide those I care for receive the highest quality of care I can give. As a student of nursing, I believe this commitment begins now. Therefore, I pledge to uphold these commitments to professionalism to the best of my abilities from this point in my nursing education and continuing throughout my career as a nurse.
