

Directions for Respiratory Unit, Class Prep 10/31/2025 Active Learning Templates

Pharmacology Made Easy:

Access your ATI account

Access “My ATI” folder

Access “Learn” tab

Select “Pharmacology Made Easy 5.0”

Access module “The Respiratory System”

“Medication Therapy for Non-Infectious Lower Respiratory Airflow Disorders”

Review the Lessons and create an ATI Medication template for:

- 1) Beta adrenergic agonists, short and long acting
- 2) Inhaled anticholinergics, short and long acting
- 3) Methylxanthines
- 4) Glucocorticoids
- 5) Leukotriene modifiers

Under “Medication Therapy for Upper Respiratory Disorders, select mucolytics (6)

Complete Active Learning Templates for each of these 6 categories. Take your time and do them well, but do not write every word down. Use bullet points, key concepts, etc. We will be using these in class.

To access Active Learning Templates:

From “My ATI” home page,

Change “Study Materials” to “Active Learning Templates”

The screenshot shows the ATI My ATI interface. At the top right, there are links for "Charlotte Buoni's Account", "Online Store", "Contact Us", and "Return to Faculty Account". The main navigation bar includes "HOME", "MY ATI", "MY RESULTS", and "HELP". Below this, the "Study Materials" dropdown menu is open, showing "Active Learning Templates" selected. A "Content Area" dropdown is set to "All". Below that are buttons for "LEARN", "TEST", "IMPROVE", "APPLY", and "NCLEX PREP". A "Type" dropdown is set to "All", and there is a checkbox for "Hide disabled products (0 hidden)" and an "ADD PRODUCT" button. The main content area displays four product cards:

Product Name	Category	Accessed
Achieve	Tutorial	5/23/2018
Active Stack® Pharmacology Flash Cards	Flashcards	Never
ATI Plan - Student Orientation NEW	Tutorial	9/14/2018
ATI TEAS SmartPrep	Tutorial	Never

Print out the templates for Medication. You'll need one for each medication assigned.
