ACTIVE LEARNING TEMPLATE: Medication

STUDENT NAME Chase Norton _____

MEDICATION Oxycodone PO_____ REVIEW MODULE CHAPTER_____

CATEGORY CLASS opioid analgesic _____

PURPOSE OF MEDICATION

Expected Pharmacological Action
ssfdadf

Alters perception of emotional response to pain at spinal cord and higher levels of CNS by blocking release of inhibitory neurotransmitters.

Therapeutic Use
To relive to severe pain. Which alternative treatments did not relive.

Complications
Seizures, Bradycardia, Hypotension, choking, adrenal inefficiency, respiratory depression, Anaphylaxis, hyponatremia.

Medication Administration
PO: 5- 15 mg every 4-6 hours

Contraindications/Precautions
Acute or severe bronchial asthma, hypercardia, GI obstructions, Hypersensitivity.

Respiratory depression, Sedation and CNS, risk of addiction, pregnancy.

Nursing Interventions
- Assess pain regularly
- Monitor respiratory status
- Monitor level of consciousness
-

Interactions
Other CNS depressants, MAO inhibitors, Antidepressants, Antihistamines, Antipsychotics, Diuretics

Client Education
- How to take medication
- Possible side effects
- Addiction

Evaluation of Medication Effectiveness
If pain is decreased or relieved.