

☐ Medication Review Worksheet

Name: Sylvia Sagastume Date: 11/20/2025

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the word bank. Read carefully and think about why each answer is important for patient safety.

Questions

1. Which over-the-counter medication is contraindicated in Probenecid use?
Answer: aspirin
2. A client with an acute attack of gout is treated with Colchicine to improve joint pain.
3. Which medications interfere with Allopurinol?
Answer: anticoagulants
4. Patients on Adalimumab must be able to perform subq injections.
5. When should Indomethicin be administered?
Answer: immediately after a meal
6. Methotrexate can result in what complication?
Answer: black, tarry stools
7. When should patients take Alendronate ?
Answer: empty stomach
8. Celecoxib complications include photosensitivity.

9. To prevent kidney damage, patients taking Methotrexate must drink avoid dehydration.

10. Hydroxychloroquine can cause immunosuppression.

11. An allergy to what food affects the safety of Glucosamine administration?

Answer: shellfish

12. High doses of Calcium supplements may cause what complication?

Answer: kidney stones

13. What is a symptom of salicylate toxicity? Tinnitus

Answer bank:

- Tinnitus
- Aspirin
- Joint pain
- Anticoagulants
- Subcutaneous injections
- Immediately after a meal
- Immunosuppression
- Empty stomach
- Black, tarry stools
- Dehydration
- Photosensitivity
- Shellfish
- Kidney stones