

☐ Medication Review Worksheet Name: _____

Date: _____

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the word bank. Read carefully and think about why each answer is important for patient safety.

Questions

1. Which over-the-counter medication is contraindicated in Probenecid use?
Answer: Aspirin
2. A client with an acute attack of gout is treated with Colchicine to improve Joint pain
3. Which medications interfere with Allopurinol?
Answer: _____anticoagulants
4. Patients on Adalimumab must be able to perform _____subcutaneous injections
5. When should Indomethicin be administered?
Answer: immediately after a meal
6. Methotrexate can result in what complication?
Answer: __immunosuppression
7. When should patients take Alendronate ?
Answer: __empty stomach
8. Celecoxib complications include black terry stools
9. To prevent kidney damage, patients taking Methotrexate must avoid dehydration
10. Hydroxychloroquine can cause photosensitivity
11. An allergy to what food affects the safety of Glucosamine administration?
Answer: __shellfish
12. High doses of Calcium supplements may cause what complication?
Answer: _____kidney stones
13. What is a symptom of salicylate toxicity?

Tinnitus

Answer bank:

- Tinnitus
 - Aspirin
 - Joint pain
 - Anticoagulants
 - Subcutaneous injections
 - Immediately after a meal
 - Immunosuppression
 - Empty stomach
 - Black, tarry stools
 - Dehydration
 - Photosensitivity
 - Shellfish
 - Kidney stones