

Medication Review Worksheet

Name: Abbey Fike Date: 11/20/25

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the word bank. Read carefully and think about why each answer is important for patient safety.

---

Questions

1. Which over-the-counter medication is contraindicated in Probenecid use?

Answer: Aspirin

2. A client with an acute attack of gout is treated with Colchicine to improve joint pain.

3. Which medications interfere with Allopurinol?

Answer: Anticoagulants

4. Patients on Adalimumab must be able to perform subcutaneous injections.

5. When should Indomethicin be administered?

Answer: immediately after a meal.

6. Methotrexate can result in what complication?

Answer: immunosuppressants.

7. When should patients take Alendronate ?

Answer: on an empty stomach.

8. Celecoxib complications include black tarry stools.

9. To prevent kidney damage, patients taking Methotrexate must avoid dehydration.

10. Hydroxychloroquine can cause photosensitivity.

11. An allergy to what food affects the safety of Glucosamine administration?

Answer: Shellfish.

12. High doses of Calcium supplements may cause what complication?

Answer: Kidney stones.

13. What is a symptom of salicylate toxicity? Tinnitus.

Answer bank:

- Tinnitus
- Aspirin
- Joint pain
- Anticoagulants
- Subcutaneous injections
- Immediately after a meal
- Immunosuppression
- Empty stomach
- Black, tarry stools
- Dehydration
- Photosensitivity
- Shellfish
- Kidney stones