

☐ Medication Review Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the word bank. Read carefully and think about why each answer is important for patient safety.

Questions

1. Which over-the-counter medication is contraindicated in Probenecid use?
Answer: Aspirin
2. A client with an acute attack of gout is treated with Colchicine to improve Joint pain.
3. Which medications interfere with Allopurinol?
Answer: anticoagulants
4. Patients on Adalimumab must be able to perform subcutaneous injections
5. When should Indomethicin be administered?
Answer: after meal
6. Methotrexate can result in what complication?
Answer: immunosuppression
7. When should patients take Alendronate ?
Answer: empty stomach
8. Celecoxib complications include black tarry stool.
9. To prevent kidney damage, patients taking Methotrexate must avoid dehydration.
10. Hydroxychloroquine can cause photosensitivity
11. An allergy to what food affects the safety of Glucosamine administration?
Answer: Shellfish
12. High doses of Calcium supplements may cause what complication?
Answer: kidney stones
13. What is a symptom of salicylate toxicity? Tinnitus

Answer bank:

- Tinnitus

Aspirin
Joint pain
Anticoagulants
Subcutaneous injections
Immediately after a meal
Immunosuppression
Empty stomach
Black, tarry stools
Dehydration
Photosensitivity
Shellfish
Kidney stones