

☐ Medication Review Worksheet

Name: _____ Date: _____

Instructions: Fill in the blanks using the word bank. Read carefully and think about why each answer is important for patient safety.

Questions

1. Which over-the-counter medication is contraindicated in Probenecid use?
Answer: _____
2. A client with an acute attack of gout is treated with Colchicine to improve _____.
3. Which medications interfere with Allopurinol?
Answer: _____
4. Patients on Adalimumab must be able to perform _____.
5. When should Indomethicin be administered?
Answer: _____
6. Methotrexate can result in what complication?
Answer: _____
7. When should patients take Alendronate ?
Answer: _____
8. Celecoxib complications include _____.

9. To prevent kidney damage, patients taking Methotrexate must avoid _____.

10. Hydroxychloroquine can cause _____.

11. An allergy to what food affects the safety of Glucosamine administration?

Answer: _____

12. High doses of Calcium supplements may cause what complication?

Answer: _____

13. What is a symptom of salicylate toxicity?

Answer bank:

- Tinnitus
- Aspirin
- Joint pain
- Anticoagulants
- Subcutaneous injections
- Immediately after a meal
- Immunosuppression
- Empty stomach
- Black, tarry stools
- Dehydration
- Photosensitivity
- Shellfish
- Kidney stones