

Name _____

CASE

Presentation Notes

Presentation Groups and teams

Lesson 2.2

Notes from Presentation:

Group: a collection of people.... Team: people working together towards a common goal.

Effective groups:

- have a purpose
- holds each member accountable
- use time efficiently
- allows everyone to share opinions
- communicates clearly

do not judge others, value differences, focus on content and group projects.

Roles:

Meetings: chair, secretary, officers, committees, members.

Group presentations: research background, benefits, drawbacks, shared presentation responsibilities.

Define task at hand, work to be completed, strengths and how to use them of members.

Group expectations: use of time, preparation, participation, communication, respect

Handling conflict in a group: normal to occur, determine cause, confront issue, find common ground.

AFNR Reflection Page

List five key points that are important to remember from this presentation.

1. How roles change from meeting to groups
2. How to resolve conflicts
3. A group has to have a purpose
4. Its crucial for a group to communicate clearly
5. The difference between a group and a team.

List three ideas or concepts that this new information has in common with previous things learned.

1. Working in groups or teams happens a lot in different classes
2. Can relate certain parts to a sports team, like handling issues.
3. Learning to always not judge others in the world.

List questions or ideas that remain unclear about the information presented that should be asked for clarity at the appropriate time.

N/A