

Career Profile

Field of Study:

Health or Engineering

Career of Interest:

United States Marine or Navy

Description of Responsibilities:

To protect and serve our country and to also set a good example for people.

Education/Training Needed:

It does not require college but you need at least a high school GED or diploma.

High School Courses I Should Take to Prepare for This Career:

Science classes or Engineering classes.

Employment Opportunities (where might you work?):

For the law.

Beginning Salary:

Additional Information:

Any additional information about this career that you would like to note for future reference.

