

Career Profile

Field of Study:

Agriculture Communication

Career of Interest:

Agricultural Economist

Description of Responsibilities:

Run different programs of economic information, research, and analysis for livestock, dairy, and poultry markets and the cost of production. Identifies problems to fix

Education/Training Needed:

Yes it requires college, a master's degree in economics or related field is the minimum, it would take two or more years of schooling

High School Courses I Should Take to Prepare for This Career:

Calculus, agriculture classes, economics,

Employment Opportunities (where might you work?):

Real estate agent

Commodities broker

Farm manager

Developer

Public relations specialist

Beginning Salary:

(Can't find the beginning salary) The median annual wage is $99,180

Additional Information:

Any additional information about this career that you would like to note for future reference.