

Name: _____

Project 2.2.3 Evaluation Rubric

Category	4 Points	3 Points	2 Points	1 Point	Comments
Dichotomous Key	All five breeds are included and sorted into logical categories. Yes or no questions are asked leading to only one possible breed. Questions concentrate on visual characteristics only.	One breed was excluded or breeds included are not sorted into logical categories. Yes or no questions are asked leading to only one possible breed. Questions vary on type of characteristics.	Two or more breeds are excluded and/or breeds included are not sorted into logical categories. Yes or no questions are asked, but more than one breed is a possible answer. Questions vary on type of characteristics.	Three or more breeds are excluded and breeds included are not sorted into logical categories. Yes or no questions are asked but more than one breed is a possible answer. Questions vary on type of characteristics.
Neatness and Organization	The dichotomous key is well organized, easy to follow and has no more than two options for each category.	The dichotomous key is organized, somewhat easy to follow or may have more than two options for each category.	The dichotomous key is disorganized, not easy to follow and/or has more than two options for categories.	The dichotomous key has no logical organization, is confusing to follow, and has multiple options for one or more categories.
Photos	All five breeds are represented by a high quality color photograph depicting a breed standard.	One or more breeds are not represented by a high quality photograph, or one or more photographs do not depict a breed standard.	Three or more breeds are not represented by a high quality photograph, or three or more photographs do not depict a breed standard.	No photographs of sufficient quality representing the breeds are included.
Overall Comments					