

Alternative Site Continence Experience Objectives

Continence Practicum Objective: Explain nursing management options for the patient with urinary and fecal incontinence based on assessment, incontinence type, and available resources.

Objective	How Met
Describe types of urodynamic testing & the indications of each	Journal development Continence Case studies
Develop a plan of care, including an educational plan, for urinary incontinence based on urodynamic testing results	Journal development Continence Case studies
Describe the indications for suprapubic catheter insertion.	Journal development Continence Case studies
Develop a plan of care, including an educational plan, for an individual with a suprapubic catheter	Journal development Continence Case studies
Explain work-up considerations, including diagnostic testing, for individuals presenting with fecal and/or urinary incontinence	Journal development Continence Case studies
Identify treatment options for fecal incontinence	Journal development Continence Case studies
Develop a plan of care, including an educational plan, for an individual with fecal incontinence	Journal development Continence Case studies

